

48" TRUE BLUE® Magnetic I-Beam Level

The 48-Inch Heavy-Duty Magnetic Level from Empire® Level helps you to make sure your work pieces are straight or at right angles so you can get more professional results. It's aluminum frame is lightweight, strong and rust resistant. This Empire Level 48-inch magnetic I-beam level is accurate to within 0.0005 inches per inch so you can use it with confidence that your results have no visible deviation. The e-BAND™ vials are made from strong acrylic and have a high-contrast design for easy visibility. This Empire Level TRUE BLUE® aluminum I-beam level's end caps absorb shock to keep it in working condition even after drops. A top reading window allows you to check your measurements from two sides.
